First Edition of the Symposium on English Language Teaching and Literature Studies (SELLS): Disciplinary Debates and Emerging Research Perspectives

March 29, and 30, 2023 Université des Lettres et des Sciences Humaines de Bamako

The Research Community of the English Department at Université des Lettres et des Sciences Humaines de Bamako (Arts and Humanities of Bamako) in collaboration with Ecole Normale Supérieure, Bamako, Mali, organize the First Symposium on English Language Teaching and Literature Studies (SELLS 2023) on the theme “Disciplinary Debates and Emerging Research Perspectives” at ULSHB located in Kabala campus on March 29th and 30th , 2023. The Symposium aims to provide a platform to research scholars, graduate students, and doctoral students working in the fields of English language teaching and literature studies to share their experiences and knowledge and discuss new and emerging trends in research and pedagogy in English language teaching and literature written in English language.

The theme of this year, titled: “Disciplinary Debates and Emerging Research Perspectives” is an attempt to explore new directions and dynamism of the study and teaching of English language in Mali and other francophone countries. With English taught in a multilingualistic and multicultural environment, researchers and scholars from the English departments will consider through this symposium how English is impacting the social, political, cultural, and economic lives of learners and users at a larger scale. Further, through interdisciplinary junction this symposium will be an opportunity to question and rethink pedagogical modalities of English teaching to reach creative and emerging solutions. Scholars in the field will be offered exciting opportunities to discuss, collaborate and propose emerging linguistic, literary, and communication perspectives to enhance teaching and research in English in the Malian context while paying attention to Global trends.
